Oak View National Bank Promotes Executive Officers

Michael A. Ewing to Succeed Wiley as Oak View National Bank Vice Chairman

Warrenton, Virginia – The Board of Directors of Oak View National Bank (OVNB) in Warrenton announced today the appointment and promotion of Michael A. Ewing to the office of Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer; and Kevin A. Lee to President and Chief Credit Officer. Lewis S. Wiley, Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors, retired in December, 2013.

“Mr. Wiley was very instrumental in the organization of the Bank and has played a vital role in the leadership of the Bank,” said Donald R. Yowell, Chairman of the Board. “Lewis has been a great friend to all of us for a long time and his dedication, knowledge and experience will be greatly missed. Without Lewis we would not be where we are today.”

Both Ewing and Lee were founding directors of Oak View and were very instrumental in the organizational phase of the institution prior to its opening on June 8, 2009.

Ewing has over 33 years of experience in the financial arena. He has served as OVNB’s President/CEO until the recent promotion to Vice Chairman/CEO. He has worked in Fauquier County since 1991 when he arrived to assist with a turn-around of Marshall National Bank & Trust Company (MNB&T). He left MNB&T to lead a turn-around of F&M Bank-West Virginia, serving three years as President/CEO. He returned to MNB&T in 2002, serving as President/CEO until the bank was sold to PNC. His early career began at Farm Credit Service, an agricultural cooperative, providing credit mainly to farming operations.

Ewing earned a Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Economics from Virginia Tech and has attended numerous banking schools; his family has resided continuously in the Commonwealth of Virginia since 1737.

Lee started his banking career in 1992 with MNB&T as a management trainee and progressed quickly through the ranks within the lending area of the bank. He held the position of Commercial Loan Officer for six years and was an Executive Officer for eight years. He has served as OVNB’s Senior Executive Vice President/Chief Lending Officer since its inception on June 8, 2009.
